

Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine

VIRGINIA • CAROLINAS

Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine

Virginia Campus
2265 Kraft Drive
Blacksburg, VA 24060
540-231-4000

Carolinas Campus
364 Magnolia Street
Spartanburg, SC 29303
864-398-5000

www.vcom.vt.edu

Admission

admissions@vcom.vt.edu

540-231-6138

Financial Aid

ofa@vcom.vt.edu

540-231-6021

General Overview:

With campuses in Blacksburg, Virginia and Spartanburg, South Carolina, VCOM is situated in the heart of the Appalachian region.

VCOM's Mission is to provide medical education and research that prepares global-minded, community focused physicians and improves the health of those most in need.

Special Features:

- Nationally Recognized Anatomy Lab
- Simulation and Technology Center
- Osteopathic Medical Education
- Systems-based integrated curriculum
- Focus on rural and underserved populations of Appalachia and abroad
- Research Opportunities
- Sports Medicine

Academic Quality

Full-Time & Part Time Faculty: 809

Incoming Class Size: 175 – VC; 150 – CC

Degree: Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine

Dual Degree: DO/MS; DO/MPH; DO/MBA

Annual Costs & Financial Aid

Year 2011-12

Tuition $37,080

Students Receiving Aid(2010-2011) 92.8%

Carolinas Service Scholarships

Appalachian Virginia Service Scholarships

Rural & Underserved Scholarships

Web: www.vcom.vt.edu/financial/

Admission

Web: <http://www.vcom.vt.edu/admissions/>

Application Deadline Rolling

Early Decision Deadline July 1

Enrollment Fall 2010

Osteopathic Medical Students 723

Men: Approx. 50% Women: Approx. 50%

Underrepresented Minority 15%

Facilities

State-of-the-art technology, including a nationally recognized Anatomy Lab and Simulation and Technology Center are present at both the Virginia and Carolinas Campuses. In addition, students have access to multiple group and individual study spaces. A gazebo, lake, and walking trail are available on campus.

Collaborative Partners: Virginia Tech & Wofford College

Attend Hokie & Terrier Sporting Events

Use of library, gym, study spaces, and dining facilities

Can participate in intramural sports

Use of town buses

Appalachian & International Missions

International Clinics in Dominican Republic, El Salvador, and Honduras

Week-long medical mission trips

Month-long international rotation opportunities

Remote Area Medical trips

Appalachian Medical Missions trips

Local & Regional early clinical experiences (rural and underserved care)

Class of 2015 Virginia Campus Profile

- Average Age: 24
- 44% Virginian
- 86% Appalachian State
- 55% Male
- 15% Underrepresented Minorities
- 28% Multicultural Background
- 24% Prior Career in Health Care

